May 2022 Newsletter

Membership Update

We thought this would be an appropriate time to provide you with an update regarding the our current membership numbers now we are into May. As of 30st April we have just over 600 members in our golf club.

We have taken in 34 totally new members into the club since March which along with membership applications through the future months will hopefully allow our membership numbers to stay on plan for budget purposes.

We thank all continuing and new members for their continued support in the past and in the future.

2022 Golf Season now in full swing

So the Summer golf season is fully up and running with Gents, Ladies, Juniors and Seniors sections active on a number of fronts including weekly competitions, interclub matches, knockout competitions and other scheduled events.

This is a reminder that the respective sections (Gents, Ladies, Juniors, Seniors) within the club have their competitions posted on the club website under 'Club Competition & Results' tab.
