Tracey Cheyne

Tracy Cheyne one of our club cleaners left on 12th August with just over 15 years service. Thanks to Tracey for giving up her early mornings for so many years. Tracy has been replaced by Patricia Marshall.

Coffee Morning

Our Ladies are to hold a Coffee Morning on Saturday 24th September 10am until 11.30am, the proceeds from this will be donated to Alzheimer's Scotland. Please come along and support this worthy cause. Donations of baking and raffles would be much appreciated also any assistance on the day.

Update on Club Enhancement

Tenders have been issued to 5 contractors and a number of representatives of these Companies have been visiting the club to view the proposals – the completed tenders are due back to the Club on the 15th September and these will then be reviewed and a report prepared for action by the enhancement committee.

The committee is currently finalising the various options which will give all our members the opportunity to support the funding of the enhancement project. These options will take the form of refundable loans, donations with subscription benefits , gifts etc. This will be emailed to members before the end of September thereafter the Board and Enhancement Committee will make themselves available to discuss these opportunities at specific times and in the appropriate environment.
